DEFINITIONS

All-County

The All-County Pass includes access to all Salt Lake County recreation centers, outdoor pools, group fitness classes, and public-skating sessions.

Community Access Rate

Rates at designated facilities (Acord Ice, Central City, Copperview, Fairmont, Kearns, Magna, Northwest, Redwood, Taylorsville, Sorenson Multicultural) may be reduced with verification of low-income status.

Disability Fitness

Available for Salt Lake County residents with a permanent disability, providing entrance of one assistant for free to Salt Lake County Parks & Recreation facilities when accompanied by the pass holder.

Disability Fitness - 'Family of 2 and Additional Family Member'

Disability Fitness – 'Family of 2' and 'Additional Family Member' pass provides entrance for Salt Lake County residents with a permanent disability and immediate family members to use their pass separately at any time.

Discounts/ Scholarships/ Free And Reduced Lunch

Additional discounts available for low-income households. Contact preferred rec center for more information.

Facility Improvement Fee (FIF)

Fee added to directly fund facility improvements.

- $1.00 added to each pass purchase per month
- $0.50 added to each outdoor pool purchase per sale

Family

Up to two (2) cohabitating adults and any cohabitating children under the age of 22 years old who are claimed as dependents by at least one of the previously-mentioned adults for tax purposes. Dependents under the age of 26 with proof of full-time student status may be included on a Family Pass. Consideration may be given to families not explicitly included in this definition.

One Center

A pass good for one specific facility including all its amenities, group fitness classes and public skate sessions (where available). Outdoor pool passes are available separately or in the All-County Pass.

Senior

Any person 62–79 years of old, purchasing a pass for their individual use. Individuals aged 80 and over are FREE (Super Senior).

Senior - Family Of 2

Any two (2) people, 62–79 years old, living in the same residence.
